

Auerböck Managing Director in Austria

Turck's previous sales manager Stephan Auerböck is taking over the management of Turck GmbH in Austria

Mülheim, October 20, 2015 – From November 1, 2015, Stephan Auerböck will be the new managing director of Turck GmbH in Austria. Since the takeover of the former Turck agency Intermadox and the founding of Turck GmbH in 2010, the 44-year-old engineer has been responsible as sales manager and authorized company representative for all operative business in Austria. In this position Auerböck will take over from Christian Wolf, who has been responsible up to now for the management of Turck GmbH in addition to his managerial duties at Hans Turck GmbH & Co. KG and the Turck Holding.

“The appointment of Stephan Auerböck as managing director is a further step towards emphasizing the commitment of the Turck Group to the Austrian market. We are pleased to be able to give the position to such an experienced man from within the company, who will continually advance the company in our neighboring country,” explains Turck managing director Christian Wolf.

Stephan Auerböck is also delighted with the appointment: “I am very proud of my team and what we have achieved here in Austria. Together we have set ourselves the task of supplying our customers with the best possible service and establishing Turck even strong as automation partners.”
